

Do you like reading?

A Christian Charity is looking for people of any age to read and review a book entitled “No Ordinary Man”. This attractively illustrated book contains a contemporary version of St Luke’s Gospel together with other helpful information.

A free copy will be given to every volunteer.

Readers are asked to respond to a few very simple questions as they read through the book.

The review is part of a survey of 500 readers from across Britain and will include people of any age over 14 who have some association with a church of any Christian denomination.

If you would like to take part please contact: